Celebrating Over 100 Years at Illinois

A Letter from the President...

Spring is nearly here, and I'm sure everyone is busy planning their garden. The Spring Luncheon is coming up and it promises to be very interesting. The drawing for the Motawi raffle tile takes place at the Spring Luncheon. A new board will be stepping up to the plate also, and I'm sure they will do a good job in the coming year. And remember, if you renew your dues on time, you are eligible to win a $50 gift certificate.

Last year the Club learned that we were required to pay sales taxes on the items being sold to support the Scholarship Fund. The board decided the tax money should come out of the gross sales receipts. In the process of looking at this as well as our tax exempt status (we are a 501 (c)(7) organization) and the regulations concerning that status, we also learned that a certain percentage of our income must come from our members. It appeared at first glance that the income from the scholarship sales may have been reaching a point where they might be generating more income from non members than what we were allowed to earn. To determine if we were in compliance with Federal Tax Regulations, we hired a consulting firm that specializes in Non Profit Organizations to determine if it may have been necessary to change our tax status.

After reviewing the consultant's report, the board decided a change of tax status was not required, as we were compliant with the Tax Regulations. We must be careful, however, when we host the Big 10 Conference in two years, as this may strain those regulations. Also changing our tax status might have meant changing the purpose of the club, and the board was not interested in doing that at this time. If you have any questions about this process, please contact me.

I have enjoyed my year as President and hope to remain an active member for many years to come. Thank you for the privilege of serving you.

Sincerely,

Mary Jo Thomsen, President

Newcomers' Group 2010 – 2011

Kamakura Lunch & Japan House Tour

It was a glorious and sunny St. Patrick's Day as we met at Kamakura for a delicious Japanese lunch and special presentation of Japanese folk music by Maureen Murchie. Maureen, who grew up in Japan, is a classical violinist and teaches Japanese language courses at the university. She also considers Japan to be her second home, since her parents still live there, ironically enough, in the Sendai area. She gave us insights into what it was like to move there, knowing no Japanese, and to be thrown into the Japanese school system. She also updated us on what life is like in the tsunami- and earthquake-plagued Sendai area.

On that somber note, we departed for Japan House and a relaxing, peaceful cup of tea surrounded by serene gardens. The quiet dignity and solemnity of the tea ceremony never fails to calm the mind.

Japan House, one of the jewels of our university, was still decorated for Girl's Day (March 3rd), or hina-matsuri. This is a celebration of girls, where hina dolls are displayed in homes, wishing girls' healthy growth and happiness.

This was the final event for Newcomers for this year, but we look forward to more great events next year. Stephanie Price will once again be the chair, with Mary Hosier as her assistant chair. If you have any ideas about what fun events you would like Newcomers to sponsor next year, please contact Stephanie, 217-356-5036 or at:

newcomersvp@theillinoisclub.org.

Thank you!

Scholarship Awards Brunch

Scholarship Award Winners for 2011 – 2012

Upper: Pres. Michael Hogan
Lower: Jacquelyn Pendola playing her flute

Once again we experienced another outstanding Scholarship Awards Brunch! This year's winners were as inspirational as always, and we were amazed by their passion, accomplishments, ambitions, enthusiasm, gratefulness, and humility. We were also charmed by our musical Isabelle Purnell Education Award winners who serenaded us. The icing on this delicious confection was Pres. Michael Hogan, who gave us a trip down memory lane, all the way back to the beginning of our Club in 1906. He compared what the University of Illinois was like then compared to now. It was fascinating! He also thanked us for our important work of providing scholarships in these very tough times. It was a wonderful day, one filled with fantastic winners and their equally fantastic parents, as we all celebrated together.

Judith Life Ikenberry Fine Arts Award

Although Leah Guadagnoli was absent from the awards ceremony, it was for a good cause. She is studying art abroad this semester in Italy. Her mother did bring a painting Leah had done in the 3rd grade when she was copying Pablo Picasso, and we were all stunned at her early talent. She is earning a double major in Painting and Art History and hopes to be an art professor. You will undoubtedly see one of her large installations soon!

Susan T. Haney Social Work Award

Stephanie Maldonado is the first-ever Susan T. Haney Social Work Award winner. Her hard work, drive, enthusiasm, grace, compassion and maturity impressed us all, and we felt she would be a fantastic school social worker. Her willingness to mentor and help others truly shone through, as well as her commitment to diversity.

Scholarship Awards Brunch

The Illinois Club Make-A-Difference Awards

Jeanine Genchanok, majoring in Civil Engineering, is active in Engineers Without Borders. She has worked on various projects including biosand filtration for Guatemala, a stored energy solar cooker for Mexico, and WaterCAMPWS for the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. She loves making a positive impact now.

Bridget Hapner, studying abroad this spring in the United Kingdom, learned early on that small amounts of time combined with effective organization can achieve results. She has participated in Alternative Spring Breaks and Illini 4000 for Cancer, amazing us by biking across the US last summer to help raise $100,000 for cancer research. She is in Graphic Design and hopes to use her artistic skills to bring public awareness to overlooked issues or to create identities for organizations with important missions but no design budget.

Jenna Nygaard, born and raised locally, is a Kinesiology major who has worked two or three jobs beginning in high school to pay for college. Jenna wowed us with her financial independence and resourcefulness. She makes volunteering a priority, even when it strains the budget, such as when she has gone on trips to repair homes in Appalachia or to the Dominican Republic to work in an HIV/AIDS clinic. After earning her Masters in Science and Nursing she wants to join the Peace Corps and help even more people.

Ruth Tekeste hopes to use her Psychology degree to get a job in Human Resources and work her way up to Director of Corporate Giving. She is the Fundraising Chair of the Habitat for Humanity University Chapter and has led a building trip to Tennessee, as well as worked in Mississippi and Louisiana after Hurricane Katrina. A member of Alpha Phi Omega, a community service fraternity, she regularly volunteers for various projects.

Gary Weber is an Engagement Partner in OTCR Consulting, a student-run consultancy group comprised of 40 top students from the Colleges of Engineering and Business. OTCR helps University of Illinois startups and academic units and Champaign-Urbana local businesses, non-profits, and charities solve their greatest operations and technology challenges. An Aerospace Engineering major with a minor in Business, he wants to spend two years after graduation with Teach for America. We know wherever he goes, he will be successful!

Isabelle Purnell Education Awards

Jacquelyn Pendola, an Instrumental Music Education major, created a volunteer program for University of Illinois music students to teach in the surrounding schools by offering help with band sectionals and giving free private lessons to anyone who wanted them. She's also earning a Leadership Certificate, and loves working with children. Her experience as a nanny has been extremely influential in her growing passion for teaching.

Danielle Pretet has an incredible enthusiasm for life and for Special Education. She lives each day to the fullest extent, maintaining a positive attitude, and thereby makes a tremendous impact on the lives of others, especially those of her students. Making even the tiniest difference in her students' lives and independence is her goal, and she strives to find new ways to help them. Her can-do attitude will make her a favorite teacher.

Jessica Slovak impressed us as a teacher who would make an effort to get to know her students and try to make a difference in their lives, not just through her job as an English teacher, but as a mentor that they could go to when they have problems. She is also totally self-supporting and knew from a young age that the only way she could go to college was to pay for it herself. So far she has done that without any loans. Amazing!

Kaela Talley's passion for education means that she never passes up an opportunity to learn. Her desire is to be someone else's inspiration and to provide young minds with the tools they will need. Even though she is a Choral Music major, she enjoys her job with America Reads/America Counts. She is also passionate about social justice, and we thought she would be an effective advocate for her students.

Maura Urquiza loves languages and the teaching of them so much, that she founded the Language Exchange Organization (LEO), which teaches English as a Second Language at the Newman Center. The always smiling Maura, an Elementary Education major, hopes to go on and eventually get her Ph.D., become a principal and establish her own school of languages. We know she will!
